Join us at this private sanctuary

Fregate Island Private is a rare place dedicated to conservation, where all is pure, natural and delivered in consummate luxury. Take a tour and be tempted.

Natural Temptation

Days of freedom with our tempting offers to Fregate Island, where beaches are so private, yours will be the sole footprints in the sand.

Dedicated conservation team

Our dynamic ecology programme has saved the Seychelles Magpie Robin from extinction and revived many indigenous species.

DISCOVERY

Unique on the planet

Let us take you on a short tour around this island paradise, to discover how a balance between nature, conservation and luxury can be achieved.
